Downing-Street, August 27, 1796.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received from Colonel Graham by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Head Quarters of Field-Marshal Wurmser's Army, Valeggio, August 1, 1796.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that the Siege of Mantua is raised, the French having retreated last Night with the utmost Precipitation.

I can now send only a very hasty Account of the Operations of the Imperial Army, which have been attended with such signal Success.—The great Exertions the Enemy were making against Mantua determined his Excellency Field-Marshal Count Wurmser to make Dispositions for attacking the Enemy, without waiting for the Arrival of further Reinforcements. Accordingly, on the 28th Ultimo, the different Corps were assembled at their respective Destinations, the Army forming Four Divisions, which were to advance by the different Passes from the Mountains of the Tyrol. The First Column, on the Right of the Lago de Garda, under the Orders of Lieutenant-General Quasdanowich, was to march on Salo and Brescia; the Second, commanded by Lieutenant-General Melas, between the Lake and the Adige, was to force all the Enemy's strong Posts on Monte Baldo; the Third was ordered to march, under the Command of Lieutenant-General Davidowich, by the Great Road from Alla, and, being separated only by the Adige from a Part of the Third Division, was to support it, and join it as soon as a Bridge could be placed between Dolci and Rivoli; the Fourth Column, under the Command of Lieutenant-General Mezaros, was designed to turn the Enemy's Right Flank, by marching from Bassano on Legnago.

Early on the 29th the Enemy was attacked on their whole Line of Posts, and were every where driven. Lieutenant-General Quasdanowich took 1000 Prisoners at Salo, and marched on Brescia. General Melas attacked the Post of Ferrara on the Summit of Monte Baldo, covered by an immense Ravine; his Troops crossed it with the greatest Intrepidity, and drove the Enemy from their Retrenchments, Batteries and Redoubts: A Part of his Division attacked, with equal Courage and Success, the narrow Pass of Brentino, between the Mountain and the Adige. The Artillery of the Third Division supported this Attack from the Left Bank of the River; and the same Corps, which acted under the Command of Lieutenant-General Sepotendorff, pushed on along the Right Bank, and forced the important Post of Rivoli, where the Enemy's Batteries commanded the Passage of the River. In these Attacks Nine Pieces of Cannon and 1500 Men were taken. The other Divisions advanced with little Resistance. On the 30th the Two Center Divisions, being united, continued their March in different Columns on Castel Nuovo and Peschiera; at the Defiles of Campora and Cavaggione the Enemy were again driven, with Loss, from strong Positions, and in the Night they retreated by Peschiera.

Major-General Spiegel entered Verona, which the Enemy abandoned. On the 31st Major-General Pittoni occupied Villa Franca, and the Head Quarters were fixed here without Opposition; a Corps of Observation being left near Peschiera, under the Command of Major-General Bajolitz. These well-concerted and rapid Movements determined General Buonaparte to an immediate Retreat across the Po and the Mincio.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Head Quarters, Goito, Auguſt 2, 1796.

MY LORD,

SINCE I had the Honor of writing to your Lordſhip Yeſterday, the Field-Marſhal has received Accounts from General Canto D'Irlas, Commandant of Mantua, which ſtate, that the Enemy, having maſked their Retreat by continuing to fire as uſual on the Place during the Night, he could only ſend his Cavalry in Purſuit of them Yeſterday Morning, and that they had already brought in about 600 Priſoners, among them a great Number of Artillery Men; that he was in Poſſeſſion of all their Mortars and Cannon, amounting to about 140, with 190,000 Shells and Balls, and great Quantities of other Stores of all Kinds. The Head Quarters were removed here To-Day, and the Army will continue the Purſuit of the Enemy; but the exceſſive Fatigue the Troops have undergone, the Difficulty of ſupplying them at firſt where no Magazines could be previouſly formed, and the exceſſive Heat of the Weather, retard the Progreſs of the Army. No further Report is yet received from Lieutenant-General Quaſdanowich.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) THO. GRAHAM.

P. S. No Reports having been as yet received from the different Diviſions, I cannot mention the Loſs of the Imperial Army; but I am happy to be able to ſtate, from general Information, that it is inconſiderable, in Compariſon of what might have been expected from the Difficulties that were ſurmounted.

Head Quarters, Guidizolo, Auguſt 4, 1796.

MY LORD,

FIELD-Marſhal Wurmſer, with a View of aſſiſting the Operations of Lieutenant-General Quaſdanowich, having ſent General Liptaye with an Advanced Guard, on the 2d, to Caſtiglione delle Steviere, marched a Body of Troops early Yeſterday Morning from Goito to ſupport him.

General Liptaye had been forced to retire from Caſtiglione, and was nearly ſurrounded on the Heights between it and Solforino. The Cavalry diſengaged him, and the Regiments forming as they came up, the Affair became general, the Imperial Troops maintaining their Ground, notwithſtanding the great Superiority of Numbers of the Enemy, till Night put an End to the Combat. Too much Praiſe cannot be given to thoſe Regiments which were firſt engaged, and which ſuſtained, alone, the Attack of Three Diviſions of the French Army, nor to the Cavalry, which repeatedly repulſed the French Cavalry, conſiſting of 3000 Horſe. The whole Auſtrian Force engaged conſiſted of about 13,000 Infantry and 1500 Cavalry. All is quiet hitherto To-Day, both Armies remaining oppoſite to one another in the ſame Poſition as Yeſterday.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) THO. GRAHAM.

Head Quarters, Valeggio, Auguſt 5, 1796.

MY LORD,

THE French Army having Yeſterday received very conſiderable Reinforcements from the Milanois, and a ſtrong Column, from Bozolo and Marcaria, having advanced this Morning by St. Martino towards Medoli, threatening the Rear of the Left Wing of the Imperial Army, which extended into the Plain, the Field-Marſhal ordered that it's Front ſhould be changed, by being thrown back towards the high Ground on which the Right Wing was poſted. During this Movement the Enemy attacked in great Force on the high Ground; and ſome of the Battalions of the Right Wing having given Way, fell in with thoſe of the Left Wing not yet poſted. This unfortunately created Confuſion, and obliged the Field-Marſhal to retreat on this Place. Lieutenant-General Mezaros, who was on his Way from Borgo-forté to join the Army, arrived To-Day at Goito. There are no Accounts yet of Lieutenant-General Quaſdanowich, ſo that it is probable he is ſtill among the Mountains, and the Enemy being collected in ſuch Force near the South End of the Lago de Garda, it will be very difficult for him now to form a Junction that Way.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) THO. GRAHAM.

Admiralty-Office, Auguſt 25, 1796.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Sir Peter Parker, Bart. Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels at Portſmouth and Spithead, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated on Board the Royal William, at Spithead, Auguſt 23, 1796.

PLEASE to acquaint their Lordſhips, that His Majeſty's Cutter Speedwell arrived at Spithead this Morning with La Brave, French Cutter Privateer, carrying One Six-Pounder, Two Swivels, and Twenty-five Men, which ſhe took Yeſterday Morning off St. Catherine's Point. The ſaid Privateer had been Twelve Hours only out of Cherbourg, had taken nothing, and was captured in the Attempt to board the Speedwell under Cover of the Night.

The Fly Sloop has alſo ſent into this Port La Furet, French Lugger Privateer, of Five Swivels and Twenty-ſeven Men, which ſhe took Yeſterday Seven Leagues from Portland.

Admiralty-Office, Auguſt 25, 1796.

Copy of a Letter from Captain John Ignateaff, commanding Her Imperial Majeſty's Sloop Diſpatch, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; Secretary of the Admiralty, dated Yarmouth Roads, Auguſt 22, 1796.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, for their Lordſhips Information, that, cruizing with Her Imperial Majeſty's Sloop under my Command off the Texel, with the Fleet, on the 20th Inſtant, at Four o'Clock in the Morning, being about Three Miles to Windward of it, the Admiral made me a Signal to examine a ſtrange Veſſel then in Sight. Upon ſtopping her, I found her to be an Engliſh Merchant Brig, named the Nelly, of Sunderland, proceeding to Fluſhing, having been captured on the 18th Inſtant by L'Auguſtine, French Schooner Privateer. I ſent her immediately to the Admiral, and ſeeing a ſuſpicious Veſſel a-head of me at a great Diſtance, I loſt no Time in giving Chace to her, and in the Courſe of Five Hours, by the Help of towing and rowing, I came up with her, when, after firing a few Shot, I had the Pleaſure to ſee her ſtrike her Colours. She proves to be the ſaid Schooner Privateer, mounted with Six Guns and Four Swivels, and having on Board Thirty-five Men. I learned from from her Captain that ſhe had captured Three Engliſh Veſſels beſides the Nelly, and was then on her Paſſage from Norway to the Texel, for which Place ſhe had Two Pilots on Board. She was built Three Years ago, is coppered, and, in my Opinion, fit for His Majeſty's Service.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
